

NEWS IN EDUCATION

NIE 4-Week Fake News Lesson Series

Lesson 1 Quiz - What Is “Fake News”?

Circle the correct answer for the questions below.

1. What does literacy mean?
 - a. The collection of literature
 - b. The ability to read, write, and gather knowledge
 - c. The ability to edit content
2. What is news literacy?
 - a. News that is based on facts
 - b. The ability of news anchors to read, write and gather knowledge
 - c. The ability to analyze and judge the reliability of news & information
3. What is fake news?
 - a. Material reported in a newscast or publication that is false or counterfeit
 - b. A website or broadcast that exaggerates a story
 - c. An article or video with a title that makes you want to find out more

True or False:

The media can try to stir people up and create outrage with news. _____

If you consume lots of fake news, your worldview can become skewed. _____

There isn't a whole lot of fake news out there. _____

It's important to have news literacy. _____

Most things we see on the internet are trustworthy. _____