Questions & Activities

1. In Chapter 5, the police officers explain it’s important to be aware of your surroundings. That means we should know who and what are around us. As a class, play I Spy, looking for things that might not be obvious to others.

2. As a class, have a discussion of what it means to be aware of your surroundings. When you enter a room, what should you look for?

3. As a class, play a version of the game Memory. Have everyone in class close their eyes. The teacher calls the name of a student. With eyes closed, other class members describe the student whose name was called. How tall is that student? What is the student wearing? Be as descriptive as possible.

4. The police officers stress the importance of stating facts. Have the teacher choose an article from your newspaper. Underline 5 facts in the article and circle 3 opinions.

5. Open the Classified section of your newspaper. Are there any bicycles for sale? If so, how many? What is the average price of bicycles? (To determine the average, add up the price of all the bicycles and divide by the number of bicycles that are for sale.)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

At the end of Chapter 5, Mr. Dawson tells the pups he has something for them. What do you think he has for Woody and Chloe?

Email Woody at woody@thewoodybooks.com and give him your answer. Answers are posted on Woody’s virtual doghouse – thewoodybooks.com and also on his facebook page – facebook.com/woodykywiener.
WOODY’S JOKE OF THE WEEK

Why did the policeman go to a baseball game?

He heard someone had stolen a base!

CUT & PASTE

Did your newspaper provide a scrapbook so you can collect the stories? If not, make your own scrapbook. Then cut out each chapter and paste it in the scrapbook. Once you’ve collected all 10 chapters, you will have your very own Woody book! Are Woody and Chloe coming to your town soon? If so, bring your scrapbook for the pups to sign!
